On Sunday May 27th, we had a book launch with a difference. Alison Lester's new book Sophie Scott Goes South is all about nine-year-old Sophie who travels to Mawson Station in Antarctica on board the Aurora Australis with her father who is the ship's captain.

Sophie Scott Goes South, a book launch with a difference

Sophie Scott Goes South (2012) About book: I know this is an imagined story about a little nine year old girl who gets to travel to Antarctica with her father on his ship, an ice breaker on its way to Mawson to make the final delivery before the community is cut off, and to deliver some scientists and other workers who will spend the winter there.

Sophie Scott Goes South by Alison Lester is a fantastic book written in diary format about a 9 year old's journey to Antarctica. I loved how the author wrote this as a nine year old and in diary format because it doesn't really seem like it is fiction.

Sophie Scott Goes South by Alison Lester - Goodreads

That's right, me, Sophie Scott. From the publisher: "Nine-year-old Sophie is going on a month-long voyage to Antarctica, with her dad, the captain of an icebreaker. Sailing the frozen seas round-trip from Australia to Mawson Station in the South Pole, Sophie recounts the adventure of a lifetime in her own words, illustrations, and color photographs.
